He/She shall perform such duties as are normally stipulated for this office and other such duties assigned by the Executive Committee. The President shall appoint Committee chairs and assign others to special projects as needed. He/she shall be the Association's official representative at meetings, functions, and proceedings of other groups or organizations related to the State Veterans Home program.

Section 2. First Vice President. The First Vice President shall fill the vacancy of the Office of President when the President is unable to complete his/her term of office for any reason whatsoever. He/She shall perform other such duties as assigned by the President.

Section 3. Second Vice President. The Second Vice President shall fill the vacancy of the Office of First Vice President when the First Vice President is unable to complete his/her term of office for any reason whatsoever. He/She shall perform other such duties as assigned by the President.

Section 4. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of the funds for the Association. He/She shall disburse Association funds subject to the approval of the President. The Treasurer shall prepare the financial reports of the Association, and any financial reports required to maintain the Association's current status with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. The Treasurer's term of office shall be 3 years.

Section 5. Secretary. The Secretary shall be the custodian of all official Association documents and contracts. The Secretary shall keep records of all proceedings and meetings of the Association. The Secretary will assure that minutes of all Association meetings are properly documented and maintained. As Secretary, he/she shall perform such other duties as are customarily required of this office. The Secretary's term of office shall be 3 years.

Section 6. Judge Advocate/Historian. The Judge Advocate/Historian shall advise the Membership, Committees, and Officers on protocol and legal matters of the Association, including the development and interpretation of the Constitution and Bylaws. He/she shall perform such other duties as are customarily required of the Judge Advocate. As Historian, he/she shall compile, record, and maintain a history of the Association.

Section 7. Legislative Officer. The Legislative Officer shall have primary responsibility for the Association’s legislative agenda. He/She shall monitor current and proposed legislation that is of interest to the membership. He/She shall keep the membership informed of the status of legislation before Congress and recommend appropriate actions to be taken. He/She shall be the Association’s Liaison to work with and educate other individuals and groups involved in similar legislative efforts. The Legislative Officer serves as the primary contact with the National Association of State Directors of Veterans Affairs. The Legislative Officer shall be a member of the Joint Liaison Committee and coordinate his/her activities closely with the Chairman of that Committee.

Section 8. Joint Liaison Chairperson. The Joint Liaison Chair shall oversee the business and activities of the Joint Liaison Committee to include: maintaining a “Memorandum of Understanding” with the Department of Veterans Affairs; pursuing the Association’s legislative goals and initiatives with Congressional members, their staff, and other stakeholders; recommending and encouraging support for Association’s initiatives from Department of Veterans Affairs leadership; maintaining a working relationship with congressionally chartered Veterans Service Organizations, and providing ongoing feedback to Association members relative to proposed legislation and its possible impact on the State Veterans Home program.

Section 9. Regional Directors. The Regional Directors shall be the Executive Head of their region. The duties of the Regional Directors will be to: attend NASVH sponsored conferences and meetings; promote NASVH legislative efforts and educate regional members; actively represent and provide regional information to NASVH Executive/Liaison/Legislative Committees for consideration for potential action; facilitate communication of NASVH sponsored issues regarding NASVH efforts with key legislators within the region; participate as members of the NASVH Executive Committee; participate on committees as assigned; facilitate communication with Regional State Directors of Department of Veterans Affairs or equivalent, state commanders of veterans service organizations, CVSO’s, if applicable, VISN’s, and VAMC’s within their regions; assist in the gathering and/or dissemination of specific information requested by NASVH’s Executive Committee; serve as a point/clearinghouse for NASVH sponsored surveys, requests for information, and coordination point for external and internal data; assist webmaster, Secretary, and Treasurer in maintaining and updating current address and Home information to include the administrator’s name, e-mail address, phone numbers, and web site information; and when feasible, sponsor and attend regional workshops, conferences, teleconferences, seminars and meetings.

ARTICLE II

Employees and Contractors

Section 1. Purposes. The purposes for which an individual or group may be hired or contracted by the Association shall be to assist one or more officers or Committees of the Association in the discharge of their duties, to expedite or facilitate the business of the Association, or to carry out a specific program or initiative of the Association.

Section 2. Type of Employment. A person hired under the provisions of this article may be a permanent or temporary full-time or part-time employee, or contractor, as specified by a contract or job description for the position.

Section 3. Supervision. Any person, group or contractor hired under the provisions of this Article shall work under the supervision of the officer with primary responsibility for the tasks to be performed.

Section 4. Procedures. When the need to hire an individual, group or contractor is identified by the Association, the justification for hiring or contracting shall be presented to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee, or another Committee or work group designated by the Executive Committee, shall prepare a job description or contract for services to be performed including terms and conditions of the position or agreement. Upon approval, the Executive Committee will execute this employment or contract.
